

Bredenbury War Memorial & Remembrance Service

Posted by Lucy Aldridge - 2010/10/14 19:20

Afghan Victim, Rifleman William Aldridge, to be named on Bredenbury War Memorial

A full Remembrance Day Service will take place at St.Andrew's Church, Bredenbury at 11:00 on 11th November 2010 where Rifleman Aldridge's name will officially be unveiled on the War Memorial.

The grade II listed Bredenbury Parish Church (Consecrated in 1877) will see its' first Remembrance Service for many years - officiated by new vicar Lynn Money and attended by Lady Darnley, HM Lord Lieutenant for Herefordshire, Royal British Legion standard bearers, county officials & representatives as well as family, friends and members of the public.

To view a related story please follow the link below:

http://www.herefordtimes.com/news/local/county/8393218.Afghan_victim_to_be_named_on_memorial/

http://williamaldridgefoundation.org.uk/images/fbfiles/images/Bredenbury_Church_1.jpg

=====