

CREATING AN ONLINE DIRECTORY

Posted by Lucy Aldridge - 2010/05/28 10:20

---

Good Morning to one and all,

Just a quick update to let you know THE WILLIAM ALDRIDGE FOUNDATION are now building an online directory of available support to Serving Armed Forces, Veterans, Injured Service Personnel and Bereaved Military Families through the many established Military Organisations, Charities & Welfare Funds. We are about promoting and making all assistance easy to find for every branch of our Armed Forces and their families. If you wish to have your Organisation / Charity listed or know of one that would benefit from being promoted please get in touch...

You can find details here:

http://williamaldridgefoundation.org.uk/index.php?option=com\_sobi2&Itemid=44

OTHER NEWS: Our Discussion Forum is in full swing with some exciting news about events, our X Factor entrants (Heaven Sent), an incredible Knitting for Heroes Exhibition going on tour around the country, which includes a real labour of love "The worlds largest knitted Union Jack" and information on a forthcoming, gruelling challenge by BATTLE MARCHES UK.

ONLINE SHOP: merchandise and Event Tickets are now available to purchase.

The WILLIAM ALDRIDGE FOUNDATION is a not for profit organisation supporting a plethora of Military Charities & Funds - please help us to ensure the future care of our British Armed Forces and their families.

Warmest Regards,

Lucy Aldridge (Founder)

=====