Well done Lucy thanks for allowing me to be part of this and heres hoping the marches will be a great success and we can raise as much awareness and funds for the foundation.

If there is ever anything else I can do let me know, a shame I left before I got chance to meet your son but no doubt in mind was he a brave and inspiring rifleman, who showed great courage.

She's a great web marketer is Lucy - she already beats Facebook in Google and I'm sure will attract a huge Armed Forces membership! lol

Lovely website Luc! x
