

Promoting Forces Charity Fundraisers

Posted by Lucy Aldridge - 2010/06/17 08:48

To Our Forces Friends,

We seek to actively encourage Forces Charities, Organisations and individuals raising funds in support of our British Armed Forces to advertise their events here in order for us to spread the word to the wider Forces Community and the general public.

We are supporting and promoting across the web - raising awareness for our own events and those of our "Forces Friends". Bringing information to the largest possible audience.

Please feel free to include details of your fundraisers here.

Warmest Regards,

Lucy (Founder)
